This obituary was given to me by Aunt Lulu and has quite a bit of information in it.

AGED COUPLE PASS AWAY

John W. Dumlavy and Wife of Bloomfield Answer Their Maker's Summons

John Wesley Dumlavy was born November 7, 1845, in Franklin, Decatur County, Ind., and died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. O. B. Smock, in Bloomfield, Iowa, July 27, 1921, preceding his wife in death thirty-two and one-half hours.

Sarah Elizabeth Dumlavy was born Sept. 9, 1851, in Lack Creek Township, Davis County, Iowa and died at the home of Mrs. Smock on July 29, 1921. Both had been in falling health for several months and only a few hours intervened between the death of the aged pioneers.

John Wesley Dumlavy and Elizabeth Dunn were married near Floris, Iowa, on March 7, 1869, and to this union twelve children were born, all of which are living, except Margaret J., who died at the age of 5 years. The living children are Osa Dumlavy, Mt. Pleasant, Iowa; Mrs. O. B. Smock, Bloomfield, Iowa; Mrs. C. A. McFarling, Ft. Pierre, South Dakota; W. A. Dumlavy, Okaville, Iowa; Geo. Dumlavy, Floris, Iowa; Walter Brown, Arlington, South Dakota; James H. and Roy A. Dumlavy of Raymond, South Dakota and Lewis H. Dumlavy of Mt. Pleasant, Iowa. They also leave thirty-four grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren.

John Wesley Dumlavy was the second child of a family of ten children, and Sarah Elizabeth Dunn was the eighth child of a family of nine children. Harvey Dumlavy, the father of the deceased was the first Superintendent of Public Schools in Davis County, and at one time practiced law in Bloomfield. Andrew Dunn, the father of Mrs. Dumlavy, was one of the earliest settlers of Davis County, and was among the first justice of the Peace to administer justice in the county. The death of Mrs. and Mrs. Dumlavy closed a life of 52 years, 4 months and 20 days, all of which represents a residence in Davis County, except for four years from 1897 to 1901 they lived near Roby, Mo. During all their marriage they have never been separated to exceed ten days at any one time and they cared for each other until they grew too frail to longer wait upon each other.

Mrs. Dumlavy united with the Baptist Church at Dunnville at the age of sixteen years, and led a faithful Christian life until the day of her death. Mr. Dumlavy united with the M. E. Church at Roby, Mo. in 1900, and his wife changed her membership to that church on their return to Bloomfield in the fall of 1901, they placed their membership with the M. E. Church of their home and have been faithful attendants until falling health prevented their attendance of public worship.

The last revival meeting at Mother Dumlavy attended was at the First M. E. Church at Mt. Pleasant, Iowa, conducted by Rev. Keesay during the winter of 1920, while visiting their son, Osa Dumlavy. Father Dumlavy was at the time unable to attend. They both became deeply interested in the progress of this meeting and scarcely a service was missed by this aged couple.

The remains of the two aged Christian people were laid to rest in the same grave at the Dunnville Cemetery, to await the coming of the Resurrection morning. The family lot contains the grave of their daughter, and is a part of the land originally entered by the father of Mrs. Dumlavy.

These old pioneers are going down the valley one by one leaving their foot prints upon the sands of time. Their passing is the opening of a larger Christian experience.
