Bro. Dunn also gave the community the ground for the school.

The church has had her ups and downs but yet God is on the throne and has promised that "As long as two or three are gathered together in His Name He will prosper them."

In 1920 when Rev. Miller was pastor the church was needing considerable repair so it was thought best to tear down the old building and build a new one. The laying of the corner stones was by the pastor G. M. Miller when

A Brief History of the Danville Baptist Church.

Andrew Dunn a pioneer settler migrated from Ind. in the year 1836 and settled in Davis County on a farm near the present Danville school. The house was located just North and a little east of the Geo. Blast home. A little hamlet sprung up and the villagers according to their faith in God, wanted a place to worship. In 1843 a Baptist church was organized, and meetings were held in Bro Dunn's home (the

Dome
In 1850 he decided the present sight and much of the material for the Danville Baptist Church so the people might have a permanent place of worship.
At the time the church was organized in the home there were 12 members: Bro. and Sister Delaney Swinney,

" Isaac Swinney
" Gerten Swinney
" Andrew Dunn
" James Aldridge
" Thomas Richardson

~~At the time of the dedication of the church to the Lord the~~ ~~following names were added: Dr~~

Sister Lida Kinsman and Sister Jennie Hare Venatta are the oldest living members.

The total number of ministers nearly 50, the exact number we are unable to give. Some of the older pastors were Rev. Doom

Rev. Ferguson, Rev. McCuen Rev. Seemster and Rev. Wm. Beard.

A few years later Sister Felix Dickinson took very ill. When on her death bed she requested to be buried on Bro. Dunn's place for she said she knew he would not permit the grave to be plowed over. A sign was selected and a few days after the funeral he had the acre deeded as cemetery. The North one acre of the cemetery was given by J. M.
