George Washington Miller's son Oliver Henry<sup>3</sup> died in an Army hospital at Rome, Ga. (Page 138.)

Martha Spraker's son John George<sup>5</sup> also served. (Page 155.) In conclusion the author wishes to state that this work was inspired by the data collected in the settlement of Aunt Anna B. Jones's estate. She died without leaving issue heirs and without a will. In tracing her heirs the families of all her brothers and sisters were located. Believing that this information would be of as much interest to others as it was to me I have attempted to complete it and put it in permanent form. Again let me thank all who have assisted in securing and arranging data.

While there has been much work connected with the task it has been a genuine pleasure. No doubt it contains many errors and omissions and I would be much pleased, if corrections and additions needed to complete it would be sent either to me or to my son Charles Ira Miller<sup>6</sup> at Greensburg, Ind.

It is the author's sincere hope, as this goes to press March, 1932, that it will inspire a closer association of the Miller family wherever they may be.

C. P. MILLER.
